

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF BAIL SCHEDULE

The bail schedule contains a list of felony, misdemeanor and infraction violations.

The schedule is divided into several columns. The explanation for each column follows:

Source

This column shows the California statute code abbreviation. The key for the abbreviations is found below.

Statute

This column shows the code section number.

Degree

F = Felony
F1 = Felony 1st Degree
F2 = Felony 2nd Degree
M= Misdemeanor
I = Infraction

Offense Description

This is the English language description of the crime.

Mandatory Appearance

This field shows whether the defendant is required to appear in court. "Y" (yes) means appearance is required. "N" (No) means that bail may be posted and forfeited in lieu of appearance.

RULE: If any one violation is a mandatory appearance, the whole case is a mandatory appearance.

ONLY if all violations are not mandatory appearance can bail be posted and forfeited in lieu of appearing.

Bail

The amount of bail that is required before the defendant may be released from custody.
